

The project UETPNET has participated in the ERACON (Erasmus Coordinators Conference) that was organized from the 27th of April until the 1st of May in Athens, Greece. ERACON is an annual event organized by the European Association of Erasmus Coordinators which gathers together some of the most important European universities in order to discuss issues related with the Erasmus Programme. This year, ERACON was organized in cooperation with the Career Guidance and Counseling Conference in which the participants discussed ways for the promotion of the career opportunities of the university students and graduates. More information about the ERACON conference you can find on <http://www.eracon.info> while more information about the Career Guidance Conference you can find on <http://www.career-eu.info>

The operational coordinator of the UETPNET project, Mr. Konstantinos Diamantis- Balaskas has presented to the participants in the conference the project and has discussed with them the opportunities for further collaboration regarding the validation of the results of the project.
